If you contemplate purchasing a new machine, or trading off your old one, do not fail to see, and examine fully and fairly, the merits of the New Family Singer.

They are the easiest to learn, the lightest and quietest to run; and they do not become disarranged after using a short time like most other machines.

There has been sold up to the present time almost three Singer Sewing Machines to one of any other kind, a very significant fact when we take into consideration that the Singer Machine has withstood the test for over twenty years, and this preference has been shown for them only after a thorough and complete victory over all competitors, thus placing the Singer to-day, in point of numbers, hundreds of thousands ahead of any other on the face of the earth.

We want good men to represent our Machines in unoccupied territory, and to them liberal commissions will be paid.

 Letters of introduction furnished to any or all of the above Offices.

"SUCCESS IS THE BEST CRITERION."

TWELVE REASONS WHY

Every Banker, Merchant, Manufacturer and Jobber should

SUBSCRIBE TO THE MERCANTILE AGENCY OF R. G. DUN & CO.

- 1.—It is the oldest and most reliable Agency, has SIXTY-FIVE BRANCH OFFICES (a much larger number than any of the smaller Agencies), is AMPLY RESPONSIBLE, and has every facility that large means, long experience, and the best system and management can furnish, to enable it to fulfil its engagements, and to give reliable and prompt information to its subscribers.
- 2.—It publishes FOUR TIMES A YEAR (viz., in January, March, July and September) the most complete and best revised Reference Book, containing a much larger number of traders in actual business than any of its competitors, and its system of rating, giving a definite estimate of worth and credit, is the most simple and thorough that can be devised.
- 3.—The notification sheet of changes contains nothing but vitally important matter, which at once attracts the attention of the subscriber (if interested); whereas, other agencies issue sheets which are largely made up of trifling changes, which only bewilder the reader and cause what is really important to be overlooked.
- 4.—Because the Agency has the best method of watching its subscribers' customers, and keeping its patrons notified in detail of changes in their responsibility. It makes a minute of every inquiry made, and when a failure is anticipated, the information is furnished in full, immediately and unsolicited, to all who have previously inquired about the firm in trouble. A notice of this kind is often worth the whole subscription price a dozen times over.
- 5.—Because it is more relied upon by all the prominent houses of the country than all its imitators put together, commands the best subscription price, and is, without question, the standard authority upon credit in the United States and Canada, over one-half the business of the country being governed by its reports.
- 6.—Because it depends entirely upon its intrinsic merit to give satisfaction, makes no false pretenses, and can give facts and figures for every statement it makes in the legitimate prosecution of its business.
- 7.—Because it has over Fifteen Thousand Subscribers, representing the most honored and respectable houses in the United States, British Provinces, and in England, Ireland, Scotland and France, having offices in each country.
- 8.—It has thousands of the most flattering testimonials from the best firms in every city in the Union, testifying to its efficiency, promptitude and reliability, for, in many cases, a connection of twenty-five or thirty years. No other agency has such a record. These testimonials are published by us in book form, and may be had upon application.
- 9.—Because every one selling goods on credit, or doing business in which the responsibility of others enters into their chances of profit and loss, can better afford to subscribe than to do without the Agency. It has so many subscribers among conservative, prudent dealers, who desire to do a careful business among safe customers, that those who do not subscribe are the ones who are most likely to sell to irresponsible traders, who are refused credit by our subscribers.
- 10.—Because any careful, shrewd business man is willing and glad to pay for a means which not only reduces the liability to make bad debts to a minimum, but which at the same time enables him to increase the number of desirable customers. It is not a luxury, and it is only false economy that regards it as such.
- 11.—It pays to subscribe to the Agency, as it furnishes a never failing medium to smooth and facilitate all business transactions, make prompt and discreet decisions upon applications for credit, fill orders promptly and generally safely, and to make money.
- 12.—We head this Circular with the motto "Success is the Best Criterion," and point to the fact that we have opened, in important centres of trade, Sixteen Branch Offices within the past two years, as proof of our success. This one fact alone speaks volumes in favor of The Mercantile Agency, a record so brilliant being a sure criterion.

1794. THE RUTLAND HERALD. 1876.

The Leading Vermont Newspaper. Published Daily and Weekly.

DAILY HERALD.

The Daily is published every morning (Sundays excepted), in season for early morning trains and mails, and gives as much reading matter as any Daily in New England north of Boston, publishing news simultaneously with the city papers, and reaching subscribers by mail or through local newsmen eight to twelve hours ahead of them. Terms.—One year, in advance, $8.00; six months $4.00; 75 cents per month.

THE WEEKLY HERALD.

The Weekly was established in 1794 and is now [1876,] entering upon its 83d year, and never under more promising auspices than now. It is printed on a large and handsome quarto sheet, of eight pages [64 columns], making it one of the largest weeklies, and at the price, considering size, quality and amount of reading matter, the cheapest weekly Newspaper of New England. It is published every Thursday in season for the mails of that day. Terms.—One year, invariably in advance, $2.50; six months $1.25; three months 63 cents.

ADVERTISING.

The Daily and Weekly HERALD have double the bona fide cash paying circulation of any other paper in Rutland County. Both papers are excellent mediums for advertising. Send for rates.
